

HAWORTH

Laminate 3-Sided Desktop Separation Screen

July 2020

Desktop screens can be used to create physical separation between workpoints, supporting people's well-being and performance. This 3-sided screen attaches securely to the work surface and is offered in a wide selection of laminate colors and patterns. Available in multiple heights, depths, widths, the laminate 3-sided desktop screen can be used on a variety of fixed and height-adjustable worksurfaces.

Features

- Durable, easily cleanable laminate surfaces
- Heights: 24" and 30"
- Depths: 24", 30", and 36" (36" depth available for fixed surfaces only)
- Widths: 42", 48", 54", 60", 66", and 72"
- Variety of laminate colors and patterns
- Sides attach together and to the worksurface with aluminum brackets and screws
- Mounting hardware should not mar worksurface top
- May be disinfected with a diluted bleach solution

Pictured are just some of the solutions we can provide to help you balance the needs of people and space as you return to the workplace. Visit haworth.com/rtw or contact your Haworth representative for more information.