

Simplifying The Design Process: Live Design

Course Numbers

AIA Course #: HAW910 – General/Intermediate
Project Planning & Design/Building Design

IDCEC Course #: 120269 – General 1LU/Intermediate
Subject Code: 3. Interior Design Education/1. Instruction

Course Description

As the world of technology evolves, we must as well. In this session, you will gain insight into utilizing live design sessions with your clients. You will learn to translate concepts into tangible designs. Elevate your design proficiency with practical tips, ensuring successful and impressive outcomes from every session.

This 1-hour course will provide an understanding of simplifying the design process and reducing time through setting up standards and utilizing live design with your customers.

Learning Objectives

- What is live design
- Why we use live design
- When to utilize live design
- How to facilitate a successful live design session

Course Outline

1. Introduction
2. What is live design
3. Why we use live design
4. When to utilize live design
5. How to facilitate a successful live design session utilizing CET Designer
6. Getting started with live design
7. Setting CET up for your success
8. Go LIVE! best practices
9. Questions and discussion

View additional available continuing education opportunities at haworth.com.